

QUIS SEPARABIT

We are here today to celebrate and remember the life of LSGT Mark Burgan -known as Burgo.

A friend to all, and like a brother to me. Mark was tragically taken from us doing what he did best- soldiering and fearlessly leading advisor 30 with Major Collins "boss". Many times on this tour I turned to Mark when I was scared and when morale was low and every time his words of wisdom inspired me to drive forward and remain diligent and professional.

You will all have a particular close friend in the army, that one person who lifts your morale and whom you can totally be honest, Burgo was that friend to me. I know I have many happy memories that will last forever, to lose him is to have lost a true character a best friend and an exceptional Mick
